South Bay CDA Courts Attend Memorial Mass

This morning Catholic Daughters of America from the three South Bay Courts will attend a 10 o'clock High Mass at St. James Church, Redondo Beach, in solemn remembrance of the departed members from their ranks.

Rev. J. Augustine O'Gorman, pastor of St. James and chaplain of Court Our Lady of Victory will deliver the sermon.

Formerly the 52 courts of the Los Angeles Archdiocese attended a special Mass at St. Vibiana's Cathedral in Los Angeles, however, this year, so that more members may attend, Mrs. Paul Haberstroh, State Regent, requested the three court grouping with Mass to be held in the area churches.

South Bay Courts participating include: Court St. Catherine 1378, Torrance; Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Redondo; and the Peninsula Court, Madonna of the Hills 1832.

The solemn procession will be led by white robed Archdiocesan Chairmen, Mrs. Wesley Muzik, world missions, and Mrs. Ernest Tarin, junorette, both members of Court Our Lady of Victory. Second in rank, robed in black with stoles of red, will be District Deputies, Mrs. Robert Klaesges, Ct. St. Catherine, and Mrs. Laura M. Dupont, Ct. Our Lady of Victory.

Immediately following the Grand Regents of the three courts, Mmes. Charles Butterfield, Roger Ste. Marie and Edward Sousa, will march all 45 officers of the courts robed in the color of their respective offices.

Members of the Junior Court Our Lady of Victory join the march behind the senior court officers led by Mrs. Nicolas Humting, junior chairman. Members of the senior courts will conclude the line of march.

Following Mass, the group will breakfast together at the Zig Zag Restaurant in Torrance.
